HOLOCAUST HORROR.

Benton Harbor, Mich., Visited by a Destructive Fire.

ELEVEN FIREMEN WERE KILLED.

Their Lives Crushed Out Under a Failing Wall—Five Other People Seriously Injured—Yore's Opera House Block Entirely Destroyed and Adjoining Buildings Damaged.

BENTON HARBOR, Mich., Sept. 7.—The most horrible holocaust with great loss of life that has ever occurred in this part of the state occurred Saturday night at midnight, when Yore's opera house took fire, and in the fight to save the building and other blocks adjoining 11 firemen, one a volunteer, met their death at one fell swoop, the death being instantaneous with five of them, six living only a few hours in awful agony, while several others met with severe bruises and burns.

During the evening the play "A Factory Girl" had been given by local talent, and the house had closed but a half hour before the fire was discovered. The building was filled from basement to the fourth story with a suffocating smoke, which burst into a sheet of flames throughout the entire audience room almost instantaneously before the fire department could respond with a single stream of water, there being some confusion at the outset owing to lack of hook and ladder facilities being short, although the local fire companies had that day closed a two days' tournament, exhibiting much skill in quick work.

St. Joseph was called on for assistance at the outset, they approaching the buildings through an alley unloading ladders in the rear of the building and while hoisting them the upper walls fell over without a second's warning, covering the men which was witnessed by hundreds of spectators.

The following were killed:

Frank Watson of St. Joseph, legs broken, skull crushed, leaves wife.

John Hoffman, Benton Harbor, crushed into unrecognizable mass, leaves wife and five children.

Thomas Kidd, Benton Harbor, unmarried, killed by live wires.

Frank Woodley, Benton Harbor, killed by live electric wires, leaves wife and three children.

Ed H. Gange, St. Joseph, drayman, head crushed, legs broken.

Scott Rice, bell boy at the Benton hotel, skull fractured, internal injuries; lived but a few minutes.

Will I. Mitten, Benton Harbor, both legs fractured, internal injuries; lived two hours; leaves wife and seven children.

Louis Hoffman, Benton Harbor, head smashed, thigh crushed; widower, leaves two small children.

Arthur C. Hill, St. Joseph, foreman St. Joe hose company, legs broken, terribly burned; lived one hour.

Frank Seaver, St. Joseph, leg broken, badly cut and burned; lived three hours.

The injured are:

John A. Crawford, ex-chief Benton Harbor fire department, overcome by heat and smoke and burned about head; will recover.

Will Freund, St. Joseph, cut about head.

Frank Paget, St. Joseph, leg bruised by falling brick.

Frank Woodley and Thomas Kidd were on top of adjoining buildings with hose, when they encountered live electric wires on which they were hanging when found.

Policeman Charles Johnson narrowly escaped, as falling bricks tore his coat half off, while another was protected by a telephone pole.

The work of moving the debris was commenced at once and those pinned in were removed in a few minutes except C. A. Hill, whose body was recovered at 4 o'clock in the morning. It was believed that several more bodies were under the pile of brick and search was continued till every doubt was passed.

The cause of the fire is a mystery, several theories from a cigar stub to a lamp explosion are given. Guy Prescott is under arrest as being one who knows of the origin, but when asked by a reporter the cause, remarked that "he was not going to give anybody away," assuming that he was in possession of facts that caused his detention. The building was comparatively new, having been erected seven years ago at a cost of $40,000, by Patrick Yore, a wealthy farmer, who had since leased it to J. A. Simon, who has had charge for six years.

A two-story brick block owned by Joseph Frick, which stood adjoining, was demolished by the opera house walls falling on top and crashing through to the basement without apparent resistance.

The opera block was occupied by the Evening News, S. M. Austin's bakery, J. Bernstein, clothing, John Holmes' barber shop, and fruit packing in the basement. The Frick block was used for retail boot and shoe business and a dwelling.

The buildings and stocks destroyed, with losses, are as follows:

Opera house block, loss $40,000; insurance $19,000; Evening News plant, $4,000; insurance, $2,500; J. Bernstein, $3,000; no insurance; S. M. Austin, $300; no insurance; Holmes, $100; no insurance; J. M. Frick, loss $7,000; insurance, $3,000; J. N. Herr, grocery store across the alley, damage to building and stocks respectively, $600 and $600; fully insured.

A high wind prevailed which caused the walls to fall outward and adjoining buildings were saved only with the greatest efforts. A large quantity of stage scenery belonging to Harry Emery of the Katie Putnam company, J. A. Simon and W. C. Hocks, was destroyed with no insurance.

Thousands witnessed the conflagration, and with difficulty crowds were kept out of danger's way.

This calamity is a greater shock to the twin cities than the Chicora's loss a year and a half ago, owing to its suddenness and destructive results.

The inquest over the remains was commenced, and the examination continued till the question of live electric wires was reached, when an adjournment was made till next Tuesday afternoon, when young Prescott will probably be put on the stand. Mr. Yore, being advanced in years, will not rebuild the opera house, which will prove a serious loss to this city.

DR. GEORGE BROWN GOODE DEAD.

He Was Assistant Secretary of the Smithsonian Institute.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Dr. George Brown Goode, assistant secretary of the Smithsonian Institution, and probably the leading authority on fish and fisheries in the United States, died here last night of bronchial pneumonia, aged 45 years. He was a native of Indiana. Dr. Goode's published papers include about 100 titles on topics in ichthyology, museum administration and fish economy. From 1874 till 1887 he held the office of chief of the division of fisheries in the Smithsonian, and on the organization of the National museum became its assistant director.

The natural history of the United States government at the Philadelphia centennial was under his supervision. Professor Goode was commissioner to the international fishery exhibitions in Berlin in 1880 and in London in 1883; was statistical expert in connection with the Halifax fisheries commission and was in charge of the fisheries division of the tenth census. He traveled through Europe for the purpose of studying the administration of public museums, and made explorations in Florida and the Bermudas. In August, 1887, he succeeded Spencer F. Baird as fish commissioner, and filled that position in addition to his other duties. He retained it only until the law could be amended, making the office an independent one. He was also a member of many of the leading scientific societies of this country and abroad.

DEMAND FOR COMMERCIAL MEN.

England and Germany Improving Their Consular Service.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Thomas Ewing Moore, United States commercial agent at Weimar, has called the attention of the department of state to the fact that the British government has taken steps to supplement its consular service by the appointment of commercial attaches. So far two of these attaches have been appointed, one at Berlin, whose field comprises Germany, Netherlands and Scandinavia, and one at Madrid for Spain and Portugal.

The duties of these officials are to relieve the consuls of the work of introducing British goods into foreign markets, and the beginning of this service has been noted with alarm by England's greatest trade competitor, Germany, where the press has begun already an agitation looking to the reform of the German consular service to meet England's action, involving a special education and preparation of young men for a consular career. It is demanded that the consular officers be men commercially and technically trained, or else that they be supplied with specially trained assistants.

Mr. Moore attributes this agitation in both England and Germany for remodeling of the consular service to a perception of the excellent results attending the development by the United States of a system of special consular reports upon matters calculated to benefit American producers and merchants.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—In spite of the official statements to the effect that the visit of the secretary of the colonies, Mr. Joseph Chamberlain, to the United States is purely a personal trip, it is learned that he will make a point of seeing Secretary Olney. The British ambassador at Washington, Sir Julian Pauncefote, is still in England, and therefore there is nothing to prevent Mr. Chamberlain from personally settling the Venezuelan question with Mr. Olney.

Peculiar Fatal Accident.

PERU, Ind., Sept. 7.—Clyde Barnhart, aged 16, living in the northern part of this county, met a strange death Saturday. He was driving his father's team on a load of hay, when a clip from one of the singletrees broke loose, and, flying back with terrific force, struck the lad between the eyes and he fell from the wagon dead. His mother is prostrated with grief over the accident. He was a splendid young man, and had a host of friends.

ALL EUROPE AROUSED

Armenian Outrages May Soon Be Stopped.

RECENT DEMANDS ON THE SULTAN

He Will Probably Be Compelled to Change His Policy at Once—Warships of Various Nations Are Gathering in the Levant—A Letter From Queen Victoria to the Sultan.

LONDON, Sept. 7.—The recent atrocities at Constantinople have been thoroughly and earnestly discussed by all classes during the past week, and have aroused the wrath of Europe to such an extent that they will probably compel action upon the part of at least some of the powers, and force the sultan to make a radical change in the administration of his empire.

There is already evidence that the bugbear of a general European war is no longer sufficient to guarantee Turkey immunity for its misdeeds. The warships of various nations are gathering in the Levant, led by a squadron consisting of a score of British ships, which are ready to respond to a sign from Sir Philip Currie the British ambassador at Constantinople. The latter arrived at his post Saturday, armed, it is understood, with definite instructions from the Marquis of Salisbury to compel obedience to certain demands upon the part of Great Britain, either in conjunction with the representatives of other powers or, failing, then to take action alone.

That Great Britain means business is emphasized by the fact that prior to his departure Sir Philip Currie received a communication from the queen for delivery personally to the sultan. In this communication it is believed her majesty conveys to the sultan a kindly warning of the approaching storm. Abdul Hamid has a profound respect for the queen, and her letters to him are never without effect.

KATE FIELD'S REMAINS.

They Will Either Be Cremated in Hawaii or Brought Back.

CHICAGO, Sept. 7.—Before Kate Field left for Hawaii she advised Mr. H. H. Kohlssat, editor of the Times-Herald, that she had provided in her will for the disposition of her remains in the event of death. Diligent search failed to discover this will until Friday last. Meanwhile the body has been lying in a vault at Hawaii. It appears from this will that Miss Field directed that her body be cremated, and that her ashes, together with a plain gold ring worn by her, be placed in an urn and deposited above the coffins of her father and mother in Mount Auburn Cemetery at Cambridge, Mass.

Mr. Kohlssat has undertaken the immediate execution of these instructions and has written to Consul General Mills at Honolulu making provision for the expense and directing that the cremation shall take place there if practicable, but that if not the remains shall be forwarded by next steamer via San Francisco and overland to Boston where the desired disposition of them will be made.

LYNCHING PREVENTED.

Three Negroes Smuggled Out of Homestead For Safety.

PITTSBURG, Sept. 7.—Prompt action by the police authorities yesterday prevented a probable lynching at Homestead. Early yesterday morning four negroes broke into the residence of William Marsh, a prominent picture dealer of Homestead, for the purpose of robbery and probably a more heinous crime. They entered the sleeping apartment of Mr. Marsh's three daughters and upon discovery, one of the negroes tried to strangle Miss Annie Marsh.

The father being aroused, came to the rescue, and the negroes fled. One of them, Isaac Mills, jumped from the second-story window, and was so badly hurt that he will probably die. The others were arrested soon after and placed in the lockup. The feeling against the negroes was intense, and a crowd of about 300 had planned to lynch them, but the police officials smuggled them out of town and lodged them safely in jail in this city.

RIOT AT A FLAGRAISING.

The Fighting Did Not Cease Until the Ammunition Ran Out.

CHARLESTON, W. VA., Sept. 7.—A desperate row took place at Winifrede Junction, on the Chesapeake and Ohio, 15 miles above here, Saturday evening about 5 o'clock, between the Slacks, Allens and Balls, growing out of old family feuds.

Twenty-five or 30 persons participated. Mike Brannen was shot in the face, one of the Balls shot in the breast and another in the leg. One of the Allens got his jaw broken. An unknown man was shot in the abdomen, and the wound is considered fatal. A number of others were wounded.

Fighting did not cease till ammunition was exhausted, and even then rocks and sticks were used, and scarcely any escaped uninjured. The crowd has dispersed, but the opinion is that the fight will be renewed.

A large crowd had gathered at a flag raising, and after the meeting adjourned the row took place.

Professor Cesare Lombroso has written a learned disquisition explaining why women are greater liars than men. Are women greater liars than men?

LI AT NIAGARA.

The Chinese Viceroy Sees One of the American Wonders.

NIAGARA FALLS, Sept. 7.—The special train bearing Li Hung Chang and his party arrived here at noon yesterday. Rain was falling at the time, and the visitors dampened their blouses and gold lace somewhat in the journey to the Cataract House, where rooms had been engaged. Immediately upon arriving here Li sat for a dentist and had his teeth examined.

The rain was a great disappointment, as the viceroy was very desirous of visiting the American falls in the afternoon. There was no cessation until shortly after 3 o'clock, when the sun struggled through the clouds. Carriages were quickly summoned and the visitors spent two hours in inspecting the wonders of Niagara.

At the electric power house of the Niagara Falls Power company, the distinguished visitor had his first experience with American electricity, the result being as startling as it was unexpected. With his usual curiosity and desire to make personal investigation of the machinery before him, he pecked at a switchboard with his walking stick. The metal ferrule closed a circuit instantly and Li's stick was violently thrown from his grasp. He was naturally much astonished at the effect of the stick's contact with the switchboard, but fortunately he suffered no damage beyond a good scare. However, he decided that he had seen enough and went to his rooms, where he remained until evening.

Saturday night Li and his party passed their first night in an American sleeping car. Before this novelty they enjoyed dinner in a dining car. This meal, which was especially prepared by the Pennsylvania railroad car people was quite elaborate. The menu card was decorated with the American and Chinese flags intertwined and a facsimile of the autograph of Earl Li, done in yellow.

After eating a rather hearty supper Li sent for George W. Boyd, assistant general passenger agent of the Pennsylvania, who piloted the train over the lines of his company, and spent about two hours questioning him about railroads. He had a map of the United States before him, and once he branched off to the war of the rebellion, asking the names of the states that seceded from the Union.

The deep interest he shows in railroad matters convinces those who have paid attention to the subject that his principal object in visiting this country is to study American railway construction and management with a view to the adoption of some of the features in a proposed general extension of the Chinese railway system. In fact, the viceroy intimated that he is negotiating for the services of an American civil engineer, who, if he accepts the offer made him, will go to China in the near future and take charge of the railway extension scheme now being outlined. Li says there are only about 200 miles of single track railroad in China at present. Only three trains are run each day and there is no traffic at night the system being so crude and the liability to accident a constant menace.

After viewing the Canadian falls Li will hurry on to Toronto and start on his long journey via the Canadian Pacific to Vancouver. He will embark on the steamship Empress of China on Sept. 14, reaching Yokohama 14 days later. At Yokohama a Chinese warship will be in waiting for the viceroy and a journey of six days to Shanghai will complete his trip around the world.

Found a Peck of Money.

GEORGETOWN, O., Sept. 7.—Saturday while workmen were engaged in cutting up some timber that had been removed from the old postoffice building when it was destroyed in 1890 and thrown in a stack, a most lucky incident happened. Between two heavy pieces of timber that formed part of a door and window frame was found hidden a large quantity of money. There was about a peck measure full of the money of all denominations. It had been stored there along about the first of the century, as there were also some letters that had been placed with it which bore dates of that time.

Village Visited By Fire.

HARRISONBURG, Va., Sept. 7.—This quiet little city was startled from its Sunday calm yesterday evening by an alarm of fire, which started in an empty warehouse in the northern portion of the city, and soon spread to other buildings. The principal losers were: S. H. Moffatt & Co., Red Oil company, Chauncey & Hartigan, Showalter & Thomas, Thomas Bowman & Co., Harrisonburg stove and heading company, Yancy, Snell & Co., Audeman, Miller & Co., and the Ramsburg fertilizer company. The loss is estimated at from $16,000 to $20,000, only partially insured.

Senator Voorhees Ill.

TERRE HAUTE, Ind., Sept. 7.—Senator Voorhees is very ill and failing so rapidly that his friends fear he will be unable to take part in the campaign. The continued delay and doubt as to his purpose and physical ability to take part in the campaign is causing much private comment and conjecture in political circles. With the exception of a few intimate friends here at his home, no one has authentic information as to the present condition of his health and nothing at all has been heard in a public way from him on the political issues of the campaign.

BUFFALO, Sept. 7.—A steam yacht containing 12 people was swamped off Elmwood beach in the Niagara river, during a squall yesterday afternoon. William G. Farthing, aged 45, and Miss Lou Gilbert, aged 36, were drowned.

AMERICA WILL ACT.

Cuban Affairs Are Approaching a Crisis.

WEYLER CALLED TO ACCOUNT.

The United States Will Demand an Investigation of the Murder of Charles Govin, an American Newspaper Correspondent in Cuba—Report of a Recent Battle in Which the Insurgents Were Victorious.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—A dispatch from Key West says: Private information received here by the last Havana mail says it is understood there that Consul General Lee has submitted a full report to the state department at Washington in reference to the murder of Charles Govin, an American newspaper correspondent in Cuba. It is stated that previous to receiving instructions to do so he made a demand on Captain General Weyler, requesting that the officer commanding the Spanish troops who sustained the engagement with the insurgent Colonel Valencia's forces be required to produce Govin if living, or to account for the manner of the latter's death.

It is said that the information relative to the killing of young Govin was obtained by the consul general direct from the man who was hiding with him on the night of July 9. The following morning Govin was tied to Arturo Adrian and Adolfo Miyares and taken from the settlement at San Matias by a company of Spanish infantry. This was the last seen of him, except that on the night of July 10 Spanish soldiers said that Govin had been killed that day with machetes. The captain general informed Mr. Lee that Govin had been captured while wounded, and had died the following day, despite the medical attention given him. The consul general was not satisfied with this answer, and renewed his demand for the fullest investigation.

SPANISH CONVOY SEIZED.

Three Hundred Soldiers Killed or Captured by the Insurgents.

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—A dispatch from Havana, says:

The Herald's correspondent on the Meron Jucaro trocha sends word that the insurgents have seized a Spanish convoy which left Ciego de Avelar for Los Piedras Aug. 25, killing, wounding or capturing the entire government force, consisting of 600 men, who were in charge of the convoy.

The Spanish commander, with eight members of his staff, was released, however, after being disarmed by the rebels. They reached Meron at 9 o'clock on the night of the attack.

Government laborers and troops are working early and late, and the authorities, both civil and military, are co-operating in their efforts to complete the new forts along the Meron Jucaro trocha before Gomez can arrive. Reinforcements are expected momentarily from Havana and Porto Rico to strengthen the defense of the trocha.

ATTEMPTED HOLD-UP.

A Would-Be Train Robber Shot by an Engineer.

SACRAMENTO, Sept. 7.—An attempt was made Saturday night to hold up the overland express train at Webster, six miles west of this city. The engine was in charge of Engineer F. Ingles and Fireman Patrick Burns. As the train approached Webster, a man crawled over the tender and covering the engineer and fireman with a pistol, compelled them to stop the train. The man guarded the engineer, while an accomplice, who had been in waiting, started back to rob the train. Engineer Ingles seeing his captor off guard, shot him dead and ran the train in Sacramento. A large force of men is scouring the country in search of the escaped robber. The train was crowded with passengers and there was a large amount of money in the express car.

The body of the train robber who was shot was found lying yesterday morning near the track. In his hand was grasped a loaded pistol. The man's name is thought to be F. J. Morgan, and he probably came from San Francisco.

Engineer Ingles, in speaking of his adventure, said: "The conductor and brakeman came out on the platform of one of the cars to see where the train had stopped. One of the robbers shot at them twice with his revolver, and with a string of oaths ordered them back into the train. At the sound of the shooting the robber with me on the engine stepped to the side between the cab and tender and looked back. He turned his back on me. That was my opportunity, and I lost no time in taking it. I reached down into my locker, got my revolver and shot him in the back. I shot him again, and he pitched forward from the engine to the earth and rolled down the bank. Then I pulled the throttle wide open."

NEW YORK, Sept. 7.—Annie Livingston, for years the common law wife of John L. Sullivan, died at Bellevue hospital on Saturday night of heart failure, and her body was taken to the morgue. She was an actress and 39 years of age. She was married to a Boston candy manufacturer, but left her husband 13 years ago to accompany Sullivan to Europe. She lived with the pugilist for some time and has also been on the stage in burlesques. Sullivan has been notified of her death and friends will see that the body is given proper burial.

DEMOCRATIC TICKET.

President,
WILLIAM JENNINGS BRYAN,
 of Nebraska.
 Vice President,
ARTHUR SEWALL,
 of Maine.
 Congress,
W. LARUE THOMAS,
 of Mason.

The Republicans who were felicitating themselves with the expectation that their ticket would get the disaffected Democratic vote have suddenly had their hopes dashed to the ground in the nomination of a third ticket.

The gold interest got in its nefarious work with two of the Presidential conventions but utterly failed to accomplish anything with the great convention assembled at Chicago in the interest of the people and constitutional government.

At the Hart County Democratic convention last spring, General Buckner offered a resolution pledging the Democratic party in that county convention to support the nominee and platform of the National convention at Chicago. His resolution was adopted and he above all others ought to be bound by it. But he is one of the chief bolters, and now asks the people to support him for Vice President.

"The entire production of silver for the world in 1894 was 167,752,561 fine ounces, and its coin value was $216,892,200. Now suppose that had all been dumped into the United States it would not have raised the per capita to $3," says a writer, "and all other nations would have gone without silver for coinage and the fine arts. The coin value of the gold production for that year was $180,624,100. So you see they were close together, and silver is used much more in the fine arts than gold. The total coin value of the gold production of the world since the discovery of America down to 1894 was $8,582,467,400; that of silver, $10,131,814,100. The two metals keep pretty close."

ANOTHER TRUTH.

"The people who talk about the intrinsic value of the dollar of either gold or silver, do not know what they are talking about," says the Washington Post. "No one can know the intrinsic value of either metal, for the value is functional, not intrinsic, and if," continues the Post, "the value given gold in its function of money be destroyed, and silver restored to its money function, it is safe to say that an ounce of silver would buy several ounces of gold. The Post has not heretofore been a silver advocate, but it expresses clearly the silver argument in a few lines. Legislation has made the value of gold and at the same time destroyed the value of silver."

THEY WANT TO KNOW.

First—How long has it been since England had free coinage of silver?
 Second—How much silver was coined in the United States before 1873?
 Third—If the United States can make silver a legal tender now, why not if we had free coinage.
 G. A. GIBBONS.

Cockrell, Mo.
 First—Parliament prohibited silver coinage in 1798.
 Second—Only 8,031,238 silver dollars. Full weight subsidiary coins in round numbers $76,000,000. Subsequently to 1853 subsidiary silver was reduced to practically mere "token" money.—Courier-Journal.

It will be observed, however, that the Courier-Journal fails above to tell them all they want to know. It wholly ignores the most important of the three questions propounded.

LABORING MEN FOR FREE SILVER.

While W. C. Whitney and other millionaires are going over to the gold standard, the leaders of labor organizations are getting in line to do good service for Bryan and free silver. The National Labor Tribune of Pittsburg recently published the following names among the leaders of labor as supporters of free coinage:

President M. M. Garland, Secretary John Kilgallen, and Assistant Secretary Stephen Madden, of the Amalgamated Association; National President Llewellyn R. Thomas, of the Pattern-Makers' League; National Secretary M. J. Counahan, of the Plumbers' and Steam Fitters' Union; National Vice President M. P. Carrick, of the Brotherhood of Painters and Decorators; District Secretary Schwartz, of the Carpenters; District President Dolan and Secretary Warner, of the miners; Neil McFarland, Master Workmen of D. A. B. I. O. K. of L.

PITHY POLITICAL POINTS.

There Should be a Bryan Club in Every Precinct of the County—The Value of Farms.

There is need for a Bryan club in every precinct in the county.

Bimetallism is for the people, while monometallism is for the rich alone.

The higher and scarcer money is made the better it is for the rich and the harder it is for the poor.

Mr. McKinley wants to be all things to all men, and to this intent his trap was set to catch a 'coming and a guine.

We have heard a good deal of the Bryan club at Canton, but haven't yet heard anything of a McKinley club at Lincoln.

Mr. McKinley ought to be pretty well acquainted with all the phases of the money question, as he has been on every side of it.

Wonder if Mark Hanna hasn't demanded an indemnifying bond of the eastern gold bugs in the event of a probable miscarriage of the McKinley matter?

As Mr. McKinley's friends claim him as the father of the late tariff act, oughtn't they claim him as the father of the money question, seeing he has been on all sides of it?

It is the game of the gold men to let as little money as possible be in circulation, and the man that can't see through their scheme deserves the commiseration of intelligent people.

Mr. McKinley has been dealing with the tariff so long that he finds it hard to rise to the dignity of such an issue as the finance, yet this is the question upon which he must rise or fall.

If the goldites had their way the narrowing process as regards finances would be continued until the whole thing was in the hands of a few. Indeed this is the spirit that governs the matter with them.

It's a great mistake to think that overproduction is in any degree responsible for the hard times, and any man of ordinary intelligence knows better. It's scarce and high money that's alone responsible for such a condition of affairs.

Mr. McKinley was, doubtless, honest in his convictions as to the necessity of silver along with gold as a redemptionary factor, a short while since, but he is now the creature of millionaires and syndicates, and as such he is unworthy the support of honest men.

The goldbugs,—and by these we don't have the least reference to the small fry who simply hang on like barnacles to a ship, nor to a solitary man in Mason County, whom we have all along claimed could have no possible interest with such a crowd,—but the millionaires and leaders are actuated alone by selfishness, avarice and greed in their crusade against the money of the Constitution.

That the valuable farming lands of Mason as well as other counties in the State have declined fully 25 per cent. in value is now an assured fact, and it is also true that this has not been brought about by overproduction, but by the stringency of the money market. If any land owner has any doubt on this score let him test it by putting some of his land on the market, and he will be convinced. Now, let every man who has land, consider well before he votes for a continuance of a financial policy which alone has brought about such a state of affairs and plunged the farming interests of the whole country into dire distress.

A MODERN CRUSOE.

Hanna discovers the free silver footprint in the sand and is surprised at its size.
 —St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

The big, hearty, healthy man is a continual irritation to his dyspeptic friend. Constipation is the root of nine-tenths of the sickness of men, and of a large proportion of the sickness of women. It can be cured easily, naturally and quickly. Nature is continually working as hard as she can to throw off impurities and to force out poisonous refuse matter. When there is an impediment, Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets set the wheels working again without any trouble. They assist nature in a gentle, healthful, efficient way. There is nothing violent about their action, and it is just as certain as if it were twice as violent. "You do not become a slave to their use." They are different and better than any other pill for the cure of constipation, headache and kindred derangements. Almost all druggists understand this, and are conscientious enough to tell you so. The druggist who sells you a substitute is not a safe man from whom to buy medicine. Send 21 cents in one-cent stamps to World's Dispensary Medical Association, Buffalo, N. The Newest and Best Awaits your inspection and approval. Goods arriving daily, with fashion's stamp on every piece.

DRESS GOODS.—No color predominates. Black holds its own. Greens, blues, purples and browns march side by side. But one thing's assured—never before has such stylish, slightly material been found in the 50c. rank. The manufacturers know the lightness of our purse this fall and have given us beautiful gown stuffs for one-half dollar. May we show them to you?

LININGS.—It pays to buy the best. If they cost a cent or two more than the trashy, jobby sorts, they have extra wear and worth, and isn't that what you want? There is not lining department in this section better equipped than ours, with everything that goes into the first-class make-up of a dress or any garment. We don't handle trashy linings. We buy the best, and always avail of anything new in dress findings that promises added satisfaction to our patrons. If we haven't what you want, we are glad to order it. The lining section is our special study. Don't buy trashy linings; it's the poorest kind of economy.

TRIMMINGS.—Velvets never lose their fall and winter prestige. There's nothing prettier for the Bolero jackets fashion foreshadows. We have a complete line of colors. Prices start at 1.00 a yard. Narrow braids and galoons also claim attention. Nothing gives a daintier finish, and the price is so small the lightest purse can compass it.

NOTION LOTS.—Best all silk fancy frill Garter Elastic per yard, 25c. Silk Drapery fringe, all colors, fancy heading, per yard, 10c. Children's Hose Supporters, extra quality, per pair, 15c. Feder's Brush Protector, best skirt binding in the market, per yard, 9c.

—Georgetown News: "A most enjoyable tea party was given last Friday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Caden by their guest, little Miss May Lynch, of Maysville. The children indulged in games, and spent the time quite pleasantly, after which a dainty lunch was served. Those present were little Misses Marietta and Lorena Proctor, Kate and Agatina Pieri and Gypsy Williams."

PECK LODGE D. of R., I. O. O. F., was instituted Saturday night at Helena by District Deputy Byron Rudy, assisted by fifteen members of Friendship Lodge No. 43 of this city. The new lodge starts out with twenty-four members. A royal banquet was spread by the new lodge during the evening, and it is hardly necessary to add that all enjoyed the feast of good things.

TO GREET BRYAN.

An Immense Crowd Will Be Here to Hear the Next President.

Preparations Being Made For the Big Meeting—The Political Campaign—The Lewisburg Club.

It will be a record-breaker. The coming of Hon. William Jennings Bryan to Maysville will attract an enormous crowd to the city. It is the talk on every hand, and everybody is coming to hear the people's champion and Democratic nominee for President. It will be an all-day rally for the Democrats of the Ninth district and Southern Ohio.

Hon. J. C. S. Blackburn, ex-Governor Brown, Congressmen McCreary and Berry, Hon. Charles J. Bronston, Hon. John S. Rhea and several more of the State's leading Democrats will be invited, also the leaders of the Ninth district, and eloquent orators, in addition to the Presidential nominee, will be on hand to champion the cause of the people. The speaking will begin at 2 p. m.

Low rates will be secured on the railroads, and arrangements made, if possible, for special trains.

The ferryboat Launce will make regular trips until 11 o'clock at night to accommodate the people from Ohio.

A meeting will be held to-night to complete arrangements for the reception, and all details will be duly announced.

The Democratic meeting at Lewisburg Saturday night was an enthusiastic one. The rain interfered somewhat with the attendance but a big crowd was out. Speeches were made by Messrs. L. W. Galbraith and Thomas Slattery. A club was organized with 130 members, four of whom have heretofore been Republicans. Hon. James E. Cahill is President and Mr. Ed. Tuggle, Secretary.

Master Commissioner Kehoe addressed the Minerva Bryan Club Saturday night. The meeting was large and enthusiastic. The membership now outnumbers the largest vote ever cast by the Democrats of the precinct.

A meeting will be held to-night at the Limestone school house, first one on Fleming pike, to organize a Bryan club. Let everybody turn out. Good speakers will be present.

Col. W. LaRue Thomas and Judge Pugh meet in joint debate this afternoon at Greenup.

We are requested by Mr. L. W. Galbraith to say that the announcement of a joint discussion of the issues of the day between him and Thos. A. Davis made in our Saturday's issue was without his knowledge or authority; and that he regrets that Mr. Davis' courteous offer to divide time at his own meeting should have been announced in the terms used.

Grand Popular Excursion to Cincinnati, Friday, September 11. The C. and O. railway will sell excursion tickets to Cincinnati lower than ever before, on account of West Virginia day at the Lagoon. Don't fail to go and see the $10,000 spectacular play entitled, "The Water Carnival, or the Fairy Dream." This alone is worth going thousands of miles to witness. There will be a grand parade of steamers around the lake, in connection with the play, and a grand display of fireworks in the evening. For rates apply to C. and O. ticket agent.

Attention, Advertisers.

Two thousand extra copies of the WEEKLY BULLETIN will be published this week, to be distributed throughout the Ninth district.

Merchants who wish to take advantage of this opportunity, must hand in copy of ad. by noon Tuesday.

The Ladies.

The pleasant effect and perfect safety with which ladies may use Syrup of Figs, under all conditions, makes it their favorite remedy. To get the true and genuine article, look for the name of the California Fig Syrup Company, printed near the bottom of the package. For sale by all responsible druggists.

City Taxes.

City taxes for 1896 are now due. Prompt payment will oblige the city. JAMES W. FITZGERALD, City Treasurer. Office: Keith-Schroeder Harness Co.

Ewing Fair.

On above account the L. and N. R. R. will sell round trip tickets to Ewing on September 9th, 10th, 11th and 12th, at 60 cents. Return limit September 13th.

New fall goods at Browning & Co.'s. Beautiful all-wool novelties at 40 and 50 cents. Black plaids and brocades at 50, 75 and $1. Cloth capes from $2 to $5.

PURE spices at Chenoweth's drug store.

It is now lawful to kill squirrels in Ohio.

The Lewis Circuit Court convened this morning.

The Scott County Bryan Club has 930 members.

The fall session of the schools began this morning.

FULL line school books, supplies, etc., at Miss Anna Frazier's.

JAMES S. WILLIAMS, of Valley, Lewis County, gets an increase of pension.

COL. W. LARUE THOMAS will speak at Carlisle next court day, September 14th.

SEND US 25 cents and get the WEEKLY BULLETIN until after the November election.

MR. MARTIN HANLEY, of Market street, has fitted up his bar with handsome new fixtures.

S. T. FARROW has been appointed overseer of the road formerly known as the Wolf's Run pike.

SPECIAL trains for Ewing fair will leave L. and N. depot at 9 a. m. on the 9th, 10th 11th and 12th.

For pure spices of all kinds call on Henry W. Ray, successor to Theo. C. Power, next door to postoffice.

A GENTLEMAN who was at the Manchester fair Thursday says there was but one colored person on the grounds.

NOTICE—How is this? Your buggy painted for $5. Also, second-hand vehicles for sale, at S. O. Porter's, Wall street.

MR. W. C. PAYNE, formerly of this city, is to take charge of the Adams Express Company's business at Bowling Green shortly.

MR. RICHARD DURRETT intends to give up farming, we understand, and will engage in business at Covington with his brother, Martin M. Durrett.

COLONEL W. G. DEARING, a Fleming County bolto-crat, will deliver an address before the McKinley, Hobart and Pugh club of this city at the court house to-night.

MRS. WILLIAM DURRETT has rented her farm near Washington to Mr. Frank Stahl and will make her home with her daughter, Mrs. Richard W. Wood, of the county.

A RECENT edition of the Courier-Journal had a picture of Joe Grimes, one of the heavy-weight wheelmen of the country. The C.-J. puts Joe's weight at 480 pounds.

MR. FRANK L. MANNEN writes from West Superior that Minnesota will roll up a big majority for Bryan, and that the Democrats have a fighting chance for Wisconsin.

THOMAS P. TUREMAN, whose death at Carlisle has been noticed, was Mayor of that city. He had been ill only a few days, with flux. His wife, one son and one daughter survive him.

SILVERWARE gives brilliancy to the table. The finest china cannot compensate for the absence of the white metal. Ballenger's array of sterling and high-class plated goods is not excelled in any city and his prices are much lower.

MISS ANNA BRITTON, granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Martin, will be married Wednesday, September 23, 1896, to Mr. Jesse C. Ragland, of Lexington. The bride-to-be is an accomplished pianist and a quiet and most estimable young lady.

MR. WILLIAM BYRON, whose home is on the Fleming pike a few miles from this city, met with a painful accident Saturday afternoon. While housing tobacco he fell, dislocating his right shoulder. Dr. Owens rendered the necessary surgical attention.

THERE was quite a gathering of ladies interested in the missionary work of the Methodist Church from different parts of the county at the hospitable home of Mr. William Roads Friday to consult as to this important matter and to devise ways and means for its furtherance at which a pleasant and profitable day was spent.

They are guaranteed to be perfectly free from every deleterious substance and to be purely vegetable. They do not weaken by their action, but by giving tone to stomach and bowels greatly invigorate the system. Regular size 25c. per box. Sold by J. J. Wood, druggist.

PURE vinegar and spices,—Calhoun's.

MAYSVILLE WON.

Shep Had Them Guessing and Eleven Lexingtonians Struck Out—Score 10 to 4.

Maysville won Saturday's game at Lexington, and won it, says the Herald, "in a style that suggests they have recovered their old time playing form."

The Leader says that it was a lively game from the jump, and although the Lexingtonians played an uphill game they couldn't reach. The trouble was that they couldn't hit the rotund and jovial Shepherd. He had them guessing from the time the first man was up.

The game was not prolific of features. The strike out record was rather large, but then outside of that there is little to talk about. Kostal pitched a very good game except in the ninth inning, when he was rapped in lively style. Elberfeld, McGowan and Lautenbach did some fine batting, while Renner's fine stops were marred by poor throws. Fahey in right field caught some hard hit balls, while Honeyman did good work for Maysville in the left garden. Shepherd was in rare fettle and the jolly boy used head work at all times. Tabulated score:

HARD TO BEAT.

This Record Made by the C. and O.'s Elegant Vestibuled Trains.

During the months of March, April, May and June, 1896, the four vestibuled limited trains of the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway between Washington and Cincinnati made a remarkable record.

Each train covered 599 miles 122 times, a grand total of 292,312 miles, or nearly 11½ times the earth's circumference, and yet the four trains were on time 463 times out of a possible 488, an average of 95 per cent.

Considering the number of trains, the period covered, the distance run and the mountainous nature of the country traversed, these figures speak volumes for the physical condition and management of the road, and account for its popularity with travelers between the East and West.

The Ideal Panacea.

James L. Francis, Alderman, Chicago, says: "I regard Dr. King's New Discovery as an Ideal Panacea for Coughs, Colds and Lung Complaints, having used it in my family for the last five years, to the exclusion of physician's prescriptions or other preparations."

Rev. John Burgess, Keokuk, Iowa, writes: "I have been a Minister of the Methodist Episcopal Church for fifty years or more, and have never found anything so beneficial, or that gave me such speedy relief as Dr. King's New Discovery." Try this Ideal Cough Remedy now. Trial bottles free at J. James Wood's drug store.

THE Lexington correspondent of the Enquirer says: "An engagement which for a long time has been an open secret is now formally announced. Miss Linda Payne, one of Lexington's most popular belles, is to wed Mr. Charles Kerr, a well-known young attorney, the wedding to occur in October." Mr. Kerr formerly resided here and has many relatives and a host of warm friends in this city and county.
